SPECIAL REPORT OF BUTLER, VAN DYKE, DESMOND & HARRIS COVERING ALL ACCIDENTS RESULTING IN PERSONAL INJURIES OR PROPERTY DAMAGE REMAINING UNSETTLED AS OF MAY 15, 1931.

Accidents Occurring Prior To December 31, 1927.

1. MAURICO vs. C.C.T. CO.
This accident occurred October 24, 1925 at the intersection of 11th and X Streets, Sacramento, at which time the street car collided with the automobile in the intersection. Suit was filed January, 1926, but due to an inability to arrive at a satisfactory trial date it has never been brought on for trial.

2. V. G. GEBBART vs. C.C.T. CO.
Sacramento Avenue and Y Street, August 21, 1926. Front end of street car wrecked. No claim was presented.

3. SHORT vs. C.C.T. CO.
11th and X Streets, Sacramento, September 4, 1926. A claim was presented by Short for personal injuries and by his insurance carrier for damages to his automobile. Correspondence has been had on this claim and the claim has been rejected.

4. BEATTIE vs. C.C.T. CO.
Front and R Streets, Sacramento, September 22, 1926. Injuries sustained by Beattie, damages sustained by automobile. No claim presented.

5. E. D. BRIAR vs. C.C.T. CO.
November 18, 1926, 1st Avenue and Sacramento Boulevard, Sacramento, E. D. BRIAR drove automobile into the front end of the car, headon, demolishing automobile and killing Briar. No claim has ever been presented out of this matter.

6. JESSE BOWDEN vs. C.C.T. CO.
November 25, 1926, 1st Avenue and Sacramento Boulevard, Sacramento. The traction car was proceeding easterly on Sacramento Boulevard and passed a P.G. & E. car going in the opposite direction. Glaring headlights on wet pavement prevented the motorman from seeing a man standing in center of tracks until too late. Suit was filed on behalf of the widow to recover damages for wrongful death and while this suit was set for trial on several occasions it has never yet been brought to trial.

7. DAVIDSON vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th Avenue and Stockton Boulevard, Sacramento, December 31, 1926. Injuries to driver and front end of automobile demolished. No claim has ever been presented as a result of this accident.

8. CHARLES E. WRIGHT vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th Avenue and Stockton Boulevard, January 8, 1927. Driver not injured, no damage to auto, no claim presented.

9. W.E. RICHMOND vs. C.C.T. CO.
15th and X Streets, January 26, 1927. Fenders and windshield of Ford Roadster broken. No claim has been presented.

10. F.F. CATTINS vs. C.C.T. CO.
2nd Avenue and Stockton Boulevard, January 25, 1927. Driver not injured, and no damage to auto. No claim has been presented.

11. C.H. FILBERT vs. C.C.T. CO.
Grade crossing at Colonial Heights, February 13, 1927. Driver sustained slight injury over right eye, and mud guard and head light of auto damaged. No claim has as yet been presented.

12. ROY THOM vs. C.C.T. CO.
21st and X Streets, February 16, 1927. Front end of car wrecked. Driver taken to Sutter Hospital; reported in good condition. No claim has as yet been presented.

13. ERNEST BRYANT vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard and 2nd Avenue, February 2, 1927. Rear wheel of Ford touring car broken and rear fender bent. No claim has as yet been presented.

14. MRS. BEETS vs. C.C.T. CO.
2nd Avenue, between 36th and 37th Streets, March 14, 1927. No personal injuries, one mud guard of auto slightly dented. No claim presented.

15. MISS AMOS PYLMANN vs. C.C.T. CO.
2nd Avenue and Thirty-third Street, April 9, 1927. Claim was presented in this matter and rejected.

16. PERRY SIMPSON vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and I Streets, April 17, 1927. No personal injuries; left rear fender of auto bent. No claim has been presented.

17. R.C. YOUNG vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and L Streets, April 22, 1927. No personal injuries; front bumper of auto broken. No claim has been presented.

18. MANUEL ALCALA vs. C.C.T. CO.
Location of accident unknown, May 16, 1927. Claim has been presented and rejected.

19. CHARLEY WILCOX vs. C.C.T. CO.
16th and X Streets, May 27, 1927. No personal injuries. Damage to auto consisted of bent radiator, bent right front wheel, bent right fender and light. No claim has been presented.

20. OPAL ADCOCK vs. C.C.T. CO.
11th and X Streets, June 5, 1927. One C.M. Cook was driving a car in which Miss Adcock was riding. The street car was clearly within the vision of the driver as he approached the intersection, and driver instead of stopping to let street car pass, attempted to pass car, but was struck at intersection. Miss Adcock received a hip bruise, and was sent to the Emergency Hospital. Claim has been presented on this matter by O.G. Hopkins, representing Miss Adcock, for the sum of Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars and has been rejected.

21. S. YOKAYAMA vs. C.C.T. CO.
Perkins Road, June 26, 1927. No personal injuries, but automobile was badly wrecked. No claim has as yet been presented.

22. H.J. DAVIS vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and T Streets, July 16, 1927. No personal injuries or damage to car. No claim presented.

23. C.A. ELLIOTT vs. C.C.T. CO.
21st and X Streets, July 31, 1927. No personal injuries; left front fender of auto smashed. No claim presented.

24. A.L. COWAN vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and M Streets, August 2nd, 1927. No personal injuries; right rear fender of auto crushed. No claim presented.

25. MRS. JOE TOVICH vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard and Roosevelt Avenue, August 6, 1927. Passengers had left car and were standing in street, when machine driven on wrong side of street ran over the boy and struck Mrs. Tovich. No claim presented.

26. W.S. TAYLOR vs. C.C.T. CO.
21st and X Streets, August 16, 1927. No personal injuries. Slight injuries to truck attempting to made turn at same time as street car, and striking side of car. No claim presented.

27. _____ vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard near 15th Avenue, August 17, 1927. Woman, who refused to give name, drove into street car, badly smashing auto and sustaining cuts from flying glass. No claim has been presented.

28. MRS. FANNIE COX vs. C.C.T. CO.
36th Street and 2nd Avenue, August 24, 1927. Standard Oil Truck hit car and knocked same off track. Mrs. Cox sustained injuries to ankle. No claim has been presented.

29. R.R. MENKE vs. C.C.T. CO.
30th and X Streets, August 24, 1927. No personal injuries; left front fender of auto damaged. No claim presented.

30. GOERGE YEONES vs. C.C.T. CO.
36th and 2nd Avenue, August 29, 1927. Driver of motorcycle sustained slight injury to knee; motorcycle broke into flame, and burned up. No claim has as yet been presented.

31. MR. GAINES vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and K Streets, September 10, 1927. Motorman pulled in close to Gaines auto, apparently striking the rear fender. Investigation shows very slight damage. Some correspondence has been had regarding it. Gaines, whose address is 73 Main Street, San Francisco, has made a verbal claim to Mr. Baldwin.

32. JOE RISKINDRED vs. C.C.T. CO.
22nd and X Streets, September 9, 1927. Machine driven by Riskindred struck the rear end of the street car, caving in the front end of the automobile. No claim has been presented.

33. F.A. WALLERY vs. C.C.T. CO. (2757--42nd St.)
Accident occurred at 2nd Avenue and 42nd Street. Automobile stopped on street car track and as car approached, attempted to clear car, but didn't get far enough off the side of the road. No personal injuries and only very slight injuries to car. No claim has been presented.

34. C.W. GOOL vs. C.C.T. CO. (1011--45th St.)
8th and Rye Streets, September 26, 1927. Accident caused by automobile crowding in too close to street car on curve. Driver clearly to blame. Damage only slight, if any. No claim has been presented.

35. L ABRAMS vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and L Streets, October 14, 1927. No personal injuries, and damage to automobile slight. No claim has ever been presented.

36. T.A. CROW vs. C.C.T. CO.
34th and 35th Streets and 2nd Avenue. No personal injury, no report of property damage. No claim presented.

37. VIRGINIA PAYNE vs. C.C.T. CO.
16th and X Streets, October 24, 1927. No personal injury. Side of automobile and front of one fender damaged. No claim has been presented.

38. E. SHIGETS, vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard near 15th Avenue. Driver sustained slight personal injuries; left front wheel broken, top and glass broken. No claim has been presented. Accident occurred October 29, 1927.

✓39. AXEL MOHEN vs. C.C.T. CO.
Davies Road, November 1, 1927. The driver of the automobile was instantly killed, and the Ford Roadster in which he was riding was demolished. Due to the serious nature of this accident, an investigation was conducted and reports taken from witnesses. No, claim, however, has been presented.

40. MRS. ELMER BROUSSEAU vs. C.C.T. CO.
19th and X Streets, November 4, 1927. No personal injury, damage to automobile slight. No claim presented.

41. ED. EVANS, vs. C.C.T. CO.
10th and I Streets, December 4, 1927. No personal injuries, slight damage to left front fender of automobile. No claim has as yet been presented.

42. J.C. MARTIN vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard and Roosevelt Avenue, December 6, 1927. Driver of automobile sustained cuts on right cheek at corner of the mouth. The side and running board of automobile torn off. No claim, however, has been presented.

43. P.F. HERMAN vs. C.C.T. CO.
11th and X Streets, December 12, 1927. No personal injuries, damage to automobile consists of bent mud guard, radiator dented, headlight broken. No claim has been filed.

44. S.C. GRAY vs. C.C.T. CO.
37th - 38th Streets and 2nd Avenue, December 11, 1927. No personal injuries, no damage to automobile. No claim presented.

F.R. FLORRIS vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard and 5th Avenue, December 13, 1927. No personal injuries, damaged portion of automobile consists of left fender, headlight and bumpers. No claim has been presented.

G. DAVIS vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard and San Francisco Boulevard, December 23, 1927. No personal injuries, left front fender and wheels of automobile damaged. No claim has been presented.

E.N. ARMSTRONG vs. C.C.T. CO.
Olive and 15th Avenues, December 31, 1927. Driver was cut on head from glass of windshield and was taken to hospital. Fender of automobile smashed. No claim has been presented.

----O----

Accidents Occurring Subsequent To December 31, 1927.

1. M. J. CANDIA vs. C.C.T. CO.
Kosova Station, January 2, 1928. A claim was presented arising out of this accident and was rejected.

2. J.B. AHERN vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th, between K and L Streets, January 19, 1928. No personal injury, left rear fender of automobile bent. No claim has been presented.

3. J. SPELMAN vs. C.C.T. CO.
15th and X Streets, January 20, 1928. No personal injury, one headlight and running board on automobile broken. No claim has been presented.

4. AL. WARNER vs. C.C.T. CO.
15th Avenue and Stockton Boulevard, January 22, 1928. No personal injuries, slight damage to automobile wheel and fender. No claim presented.

5. I. GREITZER vs. C.C.T. CO.
9th and X Streets, January 22, 1928. No personal injuries, dents in both of front fenders of automobile. No claim presented.

6. MR. HOLT vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th Street, between K and L Streets, February 6, 1928. No personal injuries reported, slight damage to rear end of automobile. No claim presented.

7. _____ (Driver's name unknown) vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and O Streets, February 11, 1928. No injuries either to automobile or personal. No claim presented.

8. H.E. BARNES vs. C.C.T. CO.
9th and X Streets, February 12, 1928. No personal injuries, left rear fender and rear end of automobile damaged. Claim presented and rejected.

9. M EVANS vs. C.C.T. CO.
9th and X Streets, February 15, 1928. No personal injuries, slight damage to fender on automobile. No claim presented.

10. AGAYSITE HAMBERIBUINO vs. C.C.T. CO.
15th Avenue, Sacramento, February 26, 1928. No personal injuries. Radiator and front fender broken. No claim presented.

11. A.Z. BOOTH vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th Avenue and Stockton Boulevard, March 2, 1928. Personal injuries consisted of glass cuts on head and face. The injured person was sent to the hospital immediately. The automobile was demolished. This accident was investigated due to the seriousness of it, but no claim has been presented.

12. H. YOUNG vs. C.C.T. CO.
7th Avenue and Stockton Boulevard, March 12, 1928. No personal injuries, rear left fender on automobile smashed. No claim presented.

13. MRS. L. SLY vs. C.C.T. CO.
16th and X Streets, March 23, 1928. We have no report on personal injuries sustained in this action. The accident report, however, reveals that Mrs. Sly was immediately taken to the hospital. The right side of the automobile and also the rear door on the same was smashed. No claim has been presented arising out of this accident.

14. MRS. E. MOYNAHAN, vs. C.C.T. CO.
This matter arises out of the same accident as reported above under the "Sly" matter. The report shows that Mrs. Moynahan was also removed to the Sutter Hospital but it does not reveal the extent of her injuries, if any. No claim has been presented.

15. ANDREW D. DADELLA and HARRY J. HIGHT vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard and 16th Street, April 8, 1928. No personal injuries, slight damage to left rear fender of automobile. No claim has been presented.

16. J.C. BOYD vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and L Streets, April 17, 1928. No personal injuries; no damage to automobile; no claim presented.

17. MAUD BENNETT vs. C.C.T. CO. (April 25, 1928, Sacramento)
No personal injuries, only slight damage to automobile; front fender and radiator bent. No claim has been presented.

18. GUS OLSON vs. C.C.T. CO.
17th and X Street, May 5, 1928. No personal injuries, axle on automobile sprung and fenders bent. No claim presented.

19. O.A. ENGMAN vs. C.C.T. CO.
16th and X Streets., June 5, 1928. No personal injuries, right side of automobile caved in and glass broken. No claim has been presented.

20. MRS. GEORGE HELLESON vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard between 5th and 6th Avenues, June 7, 1928. No personal injuries, one rear mud guard on automobile bent, also body pierced. No claim has been presented.

21. N.E. POLK vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and Q Streets, June 8, 1928. No personal injury, slight damage to automobile. No claim presented.

22. B.M. BERRY vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard and 2nd Avenue, June 8, 1928. No personal injuries; front axle on automobile bent; running board badly bent. No claim has been filed.

23. THOMAS CRAIG vs. C.C.T. CO.
4th Avenue and Stockton Boulevard, June 16, 1928. No injuries, bumper of automobile knocked off. No claim has been presented.

24. GEORGE W. BRIDGE vs. C.C.T. CO.
24th and X Streets, June 18, 1928. No personal injuries, left front wheel of automobile broken, mud guard bent. No claim presented.

25. A.G. KASSIS vs. C.C.T. CO.
16th and X Streets, June 27, 1928. No personal injuries, left front fender on automobile bent. No claim presented.

26. MRS. K. MURRAY vs. C.C.T. CO.
39th Street and 2nd Avenue, June 27, 1928. Mrs. Murray was a passenger and was in the act of leaving the car, when her heel caught on the top step causing her to fall down, slightly injuring the calf of the leg. No claim has been presented.

27. F. LUDDY vs. C.C.T. CO.
16th and X Streets, June 30, 1928. No personal injuries; bumper and fender on automobile bent. No claim has been presented.

28. U.J. CONTENTE vs. C.C.T. CO.
Sacramento Boulevard and 34th Street, July 1, 1928. The automobile in this case was badly damaged. Mr. Gorsley, the owner of the automobile subsequently filed a claim which was denied.

29. FRANCIS H. BUNN vs. C.C.T. CO.
11th and X Streets, July 3, 1928. No personal injuries, fender on back of automobile slightly bent. No claim presented.

30. W.P. LOY vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and L Streets, July 9, 1928. No personal injuries, slight damage to automobile. A claim was presented and denied.

31. K. KUSS vs. C.C.T. CO.
Highway at Sheldon, July 25, 1928. No personal injuries, right rear wheel of automobile smashed, and body dented. No claim presented.

32. A.J. HEINRICH vs. C.C.T. CO.
37th Street and 2nd Avenue, July 26, 1928. No personal injuries, left front wheel and headlight of automobile broken, fender bent. No claim presented.

33. _____ vs. C.C.T. CO. (Name not known)
8th, between J and K Streets, July 27, 1928. One person sustained a cut face, due to broken glass, was removed to hospital. Refused to give name. Damage to automobile consisted of a bent radiator, broken fender and headlights.

Automobile, Ford Coupe, 1928, License No. 593,632. No claim presented.

34. MARSHALL DEWITT vs. C.C.T. CO.
28th and X Streets, August 12, 1928. No personal injuries, slight damage to automobile. No claim presented.

35. TOM FOX vs. C.C.T. CO.
Yosemite and Stockton Boulevard, August 21, 1928. Mr. Fox sustained cuts about the head and face, his shoulder and left arm was broken. He was removed to the County Hospital of Sacramento. The automobile which he was driving was demolished. No claim has as yet been presented arising out of this accident.

36. MRS. DAIL PARK vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and S Streets, September 2, 1928. No personal injuries, bumper and fender on automobile bent and headlights broken. No claim has been presented.

37. J.C. McKEWEN vs. C.C.T. CO.
29th and X Streets, September 6, 1928. Mr. McKewen sustained a slight cut about the head; automobile practically demolished. After the accident the injured party returned to his home. No claim presented.

38. F.L. LASSWELL vs. C.C.T. CO.
22nd and X Streets, September 11, 1928. No personal injury, fender on automobile bent and headlight broken. No claim has yet been presented.

39. F. PENNINGTON vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and K Streets, September 19, 1928. Mr. Pennington sustained a slightly skinned hand by brushing against the side of the car while a passenger thereon. No claim has been presented.

40. GEORGE MASI vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and N Streets, September 19, 1928. No personal injuries, right fender, running board and headlights on automobile broken. A claim has been presented and denied.

41. A. BORCHARD vs. C.C.T. CO.
26th and X Streets, October 11, 1928. No personal injuries, rear end of automobile slightly damaged. Claim presented and denied.

42. H.L. SHAN vs. C.C.T. CO.
13th and X Streets, November 3, 1928. No personal injury, bumper on automobile torn off. No claim has been presented.

43. S. SUGASAWA vs. C.C.T. CO.
13th and X Streets, November 12, 1928. No personal injuries to Mr. Sugasawa, but his wife, who was a passenger in car at the time sustained minor cuts on the right side of the face. The rear fender was smashed, and the rear end of the automobile was slightly damaged. A claim was presented and denied.

44. ADDIE SCOTT vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th, between K and L Streets, November 15, 1928. In this accident Miss Scott was preceding the street car and suddenly stopped. The motorman was unable to stop in time to avoid the accident and Miss Scott's car also collided with the parked automobile of a Mr. I.J. Stromnesa. Both parties have filed claims for property damages which were denied.

45. _____ HARGEN vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th, between K and L Streets, November 25, 1928. No personal injuries, no damage to automobile, no claim presented.

46. S. GARGINLAO vs. C.C.T. CO.
2nd Avenue and 42nd Street, December 1928. No personal injuries, no damage to automobile; no claim presented.

47. LEONARD De SOUSA vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and Q Streets, December 11, 1928. No personal injuries, fenders, running board and window on door of automobile broken. No claim has as yet been presented.

48. JAMES CONDY vs. C.C.T. CO.
2nd Avenue and 38th Streets, December 15, 1928.
No personal injuries, front and rear fenders bent and the right side of the automobile slightly smashed. No claim has been presented.

49. J.M. STRICKLAND vs. C.C.T. CO.
34th Street and 2nd Avenue, December 15, 1928.
No personal injuries, left front fender of auto slightly bent. No claim has as yet been presented.

50. A. NELSON vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard between 2nd and 3rd Avenue, December 21, 1928. No personal injuries, front and rear fenders and also running board of automobile broken. No claim has as yet been presented.

51. B.C. KING vs. C.C.T. CO.
32nd Street and Stockton Boulevard, December 22, 1928.
No personal injuries, front and rear left fenders of automobile bent. No claim has as yet been presented.

52. C.J. KENDEL vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and L Streets, December 24, 1928. No personal injuries, right front fender of automobile and also the bumper bent. No claim presented.

53. S.D. ULKIN vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and L Streets, December 26, 1928. No personal injuries, rear bumper on automobile broken. No claim has yet been presented.

54. F.A. FERLIT vs. C.C.T. CO.
16th and X Streets, January 16, 1929. No personal injuries; damage to automobile slight. No claim presented.

55. M.L. MURPHY vs. C.C.T. CO. (January 20, 1929)
Highway Crossing at Sheldon Station. No personal injuries; damage to automobile slight. No claim presented.

56. L.H. GILMORE vs. C.C.T. CO.
34th Street and 2nd Avenue, January 20, 1929. No personal injuries; damage to automobile slight. No claim presented.

57. TOSBERG & FRISE vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and Q Streets, February 2, 1929. No personal injuries; damage to automobile slight. No claim presented.

58. M. RODERICKS vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and Q Streets, February 3, 1929. No personal injuries; damage to automobile - broken front spring, bent frame and fender. No claim presented.

XX59. 15th and X STREETS ACCIDENT.
Sacramento, February 14, 1929. A 1927 Pontiac Sedan automobile headed southerly on 15th Street crashed into side of Traction Car No. 103, outbound, resulting in the deaths of Iva May Schilling and Robert H. Aungst. Elisabeth Bivens, Helen Bennett and Walter Thor were seriously injured. Pontiac Sedan was owned by John L. Bird, and was demolished.

60. JOE GIANNINA vs. C.C.T. CO.
11th and X Streets, March 14, 1929. An automobile containing George Burk, Buck Nora, Joe Giannina, Kenneth Kane and R.F. French, was traveling at a high rate of speed northerly on 11th Street, and skidded into side of Traction Company car. One of the parties was slightly cut on the forehead and knocked unconscious. He was removed to the Emergency Hospital. Damage to the automobile consisted of smashed bumper, demolished radiator, left side of hood, left fender and left running board badly bent, left front tire and rim torn off, left wind-shield wing broken, and left side of body badly scratched. No claim presented.

61. B. MACDONNELL vs. C.C.T. CO.
13th Avenue and Stockton Boulevard, March 22, 1929. No personal injuries; damage to automobile slight. No claim presented.

62. _____ vs. C.C.T. CO. (Name unknown.)
13th Avenue and Stockton Boulevard, March 26, 1929. Apparently no personal injuries; no damage to automobile; immediately after accident, driver speeded up, and motorman was unable to obtain information.

63. LOUIS LIND vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and L Streets, March 30, 1929. No personal injuries damage to auto slight, no claim presented.

64. MRS. PEARL LINCECUM vs. C.C.T. CO.
19th and X Streets, April 24, 1929. Driver of automobile uninjured. Mrs. Nellie Laughter, guest in car, was slightly bruised about the head. Car was a Chevrolet Coupe owned by George Royles of San Francisco, and was practically demolished. Claim presented and rejected.

65. MR. WIXSON vs. C.C.T. CO.
21st and X Streets, April 26, 1929. No personal injuries; damage to automobile slight. No claim presented.

66. WILLIAM F. MELSTROM vs. C.C.T. CO.
5th and X Streets, May 3, 1929. No personal injuries; damage to automobile slight. No claim presented.

67. FRANK J. HIGASHINO vs. C.C.T. CO.
11th and X Streets, May 6, 1929. No personal injuries, damage to automobile slight. No claim presented.

68. BILL SPANGLER vs. C.C.T. CO.
Alhambra Boulevard, Sacramento Boulevard and Y Streets, May 10 1929. Ford driven by Bill Spangler, a minor, who was accompanied by Helen Buge, Ed Gallagher and Charles Henry, crashed into side of Train No. 7. The Ford automobile was badly damaged; Helen Buge was cut by glass about the head and face; Ed Gallagher sustained a fractured arm.

69. JOE CASPERI vs. C.C.T. CO.
18th and X Streets, May 11, 1929. No personal injuries, slight damage to automobile. No claim presented.

70. H.C. JASPER vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and Q Streets, June 12, 1929. Traction Company car crossing intersection of 18th and Q Streets, collided with truck of John Breuner Company driven by H.C. JASPER. Mrs. L.A. Harvey, 5510 San Francisco Boulevard, a passenger on Traction Company car, was thrown from her seat. Claim was filed by Mrs. Harvey and was denied.

71. MARY SEAY vs. C.C.T. CO.
37th Street and 2nd Avenue, June 23, 1929. Dodge Coupe owned by Loden Seay, driven by Mary Seay, traveling at a speed of approximately thirty-five miles per hour, crashed into Traction Company car. Sam Brushia, 3725 Miller Way, Age 12; Tony Brushia, 3725 Miller Way, Age 10; Mary Parino, 3530 Stockton Boulevard, Age 12; guests in the automobile, all sustained cuts and bruises. The body of the automobile was very badly damaged, claim was presented and denied.

72. MRS. M.A. ALLISON vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and L Streets, July 12, 1929. Passenger was leaving Car No. 102 when her dress caught on gate and she fell. No personal injuries but dress ruined. No claim presented.

73. J.W. KNOX vs. C.C.T. CO.
10th Avenue and Stockton Boulevard, July 14, 1929. No personal injuries; damage to automobile slight. No claim presented.

74. KATHARINE SEVACICH vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and U Streets, August 26, 1929. Car coming to a stop at 8th and U Streets, when passenger attempted to alight before car had come to full stop, and fell to pavement. No personal injuries. No claim presented.

75. B. DAVIS vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and Q Streets, August 30, 1929. Automobile driven by B. Davis, with Jim Jackson, guest, crashed into Traction car. No personal injuries. No damage to automobile reported. No claim presented.

76. _____ vs. C.C.T. CO. (Name unknown)
8th and Q Streets, September 3, 1929. Accident with moving van; driver of van did not stop, hence name unknown. No damage reported. No claim presented.

77. H.G. HOUSE vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard and 5th Avenue, September 6, 1929. Damage to automobile slight; no personal injuries, no claim presented.

78. TONY OREB vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and M Streets, September 7, 1929. Automobile containing Mr. and Mrs. Tony Oreb of Oakland, California, crashed into car. No personal injuries reported. Damage to automobile slight. No claim presented.

79. MARY SILVIA vs. C.C.T. CO.
31st and X Streets, September 11, 1929. Passenger carrying several bundles endeavored to alight from street car without supporting herself by handrail. Missed step and fell to the ground. Badly shaken up, but apparently not injured. No claim presented.

80. W.C. WHITACKER vs. C.C.T. CO.
32nd Street and Sacramento Boulevard, September 21, 1929. No personal injuries reported; damage to automobile slight. No claim presented.

81. JOHN DESAUNDERS vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and M Streets, September 22, 1929. Traction Car was passing through intersection of 8th and M Streets; Chevrolet Roadster, traveling at a rapid rate, driven by John DeSaunders, with guest, Mrs. DeSaunders, crashed into left front end of street car. Driver said he was blinded by the sun and did not see traction car. Front wheel and axle of automobile and fender badly smashed. No personal injuries reported. No claim presented.

82. J. HOOPER vs. C.C.T. CO.
X, between 13th and 14th Streets, September 24, 1929. Ford automobile being driven by J. Hooper, with guest, E. Bimrose, 1321 X Street, suddenly turned across track in front of street car. E. Bimrose sustained skinned arm. No other personal injuries; damage to automobile slight. No claim presented.

83. L.I. WUMELY vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and N Streets, October 1, 1929. Traction car, passing through intersection of 8th and L Streets, at approximately 10 miles per hour, collided with truck owned by Sacramento Hog Company, driven by L.I. Wumely, containing a load of lumber; truck was approching intersection at approximately 18 miles per hour. Driver endeavored to slow down truck, but apparently brakes could not hold, and he suddenly turned truck in effort to avoid collision. No personal injuries reported, damage to truck slight, no claim presented.

84. S.J. BRUNO vs. C.C.T. CO.
Curve in front of Car Barn, Alhambra Boulevard, October 17, 1929. Truck parked too close to track; motorman did not observe same until too late to avoid striking it. No personal injuries. Damage to truck slight. No claim presented.

85. HAL DENNIS vs. C.C.T. CO. (Roy Guamer)
7th Avenue and Stockton Boulevard, November 6, 1929. Traction Car No. 108, inbound on Stockton Boulevard, at about fifteen miles per hour. Motorman saw Chevrolet Coupe approaching approximately forty feet away, swerving badly. Motorman slowed down car, and just prior to coming to a stop, the Chevrolet swerved and collided head-on with Traction Company car. Hal Dennis, driver, 620 M Street, instantly killed. Chevrolet Coupe demolished. Immediately following this office interviewed motorman, and several other persons who were either eye witnesses or who arrived shortly after the accident. Photographs were secured of the intersection and of the street car. Conference was held with Mr. Watts and motorman relative to motorman's testimony to be given at the Coroner's Inquest, and a represenative from this office attended the same. No claim has been presented by the widow of Mr. Dennis.

86. G.A. KNOBLANCH vs. C.C.T. CO.
13th and X Streets, November 24, 1929. Automobile driven by G.A. Knoblanch containing Mrs. G.A. Knoblanch, Mrs. Prunte and Louis Prunte, struck by Train No12 at 13th and X Streets; automobile was traveling rapidly, and endeavored to cross in front of westbound train. Automobile badly damaged. Occupants of automobile taken to Emergency Hospital. Claim presented and rejected.

87. MRS. E. PENINGER vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th, between K and L Streets, November 30, 1929. No personal injuries; damages to automobile slight. No claim presented.

88. A.H. KAISER vs. C.C.T. CO.
11th and X Streets, December 13, 1929. Damage to automobile slight. No personal injuries reported. No claim presented.

89. J.E. RICHMOND vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and S Streets, December 21, 1929. Traction car crossing intersection at 8th and X Streets, and when at about center of street, struck by truck driven by J.E. Richmond. A Mrs. C. Tilton, 2314-14th Street, Sacramento, was a passenger on the Traction Company car, and was cut about the head. Mr. Watts has been to see this woman, and it is doubtful whether a claim will ever by presented.

90. W.W. DEYOE vs. C.C.T. CO.
21st and X Streets, December 27, 1929. No personal injuries reported. Damage to automobile slight. No claim presented.

91. D.S. COMPTON vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard between 2nd and 3rd Avenue, January 11, 1930. Driver of automobile apparently under the influence of liquor, sustained slight cut on hand; damage to automobile insignificant; no claim presented.

92. EDGAR BELLMER vs. C.C.T. CO.
21st and X Streets, January 13, 1930. No personal injuries; damage to automobile slight; no claim presented.

93. T.V. BEISS vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th, between K and L Streets, January 24, 1930. No personal injuries; damage to automobile slight, no claim presented.

94. J.C. BANKEY vs. C.C.T. CO
16th and X Streets, January 26, 1930. The driver of the automobile was apparently endeavoring to beat interurban Motor No. 4 to the intersection; auto collided with side of motor at a point approximately eight feet from the front end of motor; driver of automobile sustained a rather severely bruised knee, cuts and lacerations on the face and near the eyes, and a rather serious cut on the arm. An ambulance was called and he was sent immediately to the Emergency Hospital. The engine of the automobile was demolished, the bumper and headlights broken. Because of the seriousness of the accident, witnesses were interviewed and statements taken. No claim presented, and any claim for personal injuries has been barred by the Statute of Limitations.

95. _____HAMMERSMITH vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and Q Streets, January 27, 1930. No personal injuries; no damage to automobile; no claim presented.

96. D. DOLA vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and S Streets, February 19, 1930. No personal injuries; damage to automobile slight; no claim presented.

97. L.H. DELAMATOR vs. C.C.T. CO.
24th and X Streets, February 22, 1930. Driver of automobile admitted, following crash, that he entered intersection without either seeing or hearing street car. No personal injuries; damage to automobile consisted of broken fender, sprung axle, broken headlights. No claim presented.

98. O.W. HAWN vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and N Streets, February 27, 1930. No personal injuries; damage to automobile slight; no claim presented.

99. S.F. KAPALL vs. C.C.T. CO.
16th and X Streets, March 12, 1930. No personal injuries; damage to automobile consisted solely of broken headlights and bent front fender; no claim presented.

100. MRS. EMMA WEISEMEN vs. C.C.T. CO.
30th and X Streets, March 29, 1930. No personal injuries; no damage to automobile, no claim presented.

101. NAME UNKNOWN vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard and 13th Avenue, March 29, 1930. Collision between Buick Coupe automobile and Traction Car No. 108; driver of automobile neglected to stop following collision and his name not obtained; no claim presented.

102. K. TANIGUCHI vs. C.C.T. CO.
Davies Road, Sacramento, April 10, 1930. A 1923 Ford Roadster driven by K. Taniguchi collided with Motor No. 207. Apparently no personal injuries sustained either by driver of automobile or guest riding in same; front part of automobile demolished; no claim presented.

103. P.G.&E. CAR NO. 57 vs. C.C.T. CO.
Fourth Avenue and Stockton Boulevard, April 13, 1930. Traction Car No. 109 had been brought to a stop by motorman at the intersection when P.G.& E. Car No. 57 in starting across Stockton Boulevard sideswiped the The Traction Car. No passengers injured; damage to equipment slight; no claim presented.

104. RUBY KAHN vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard, between 2nd and 3rd Avenue, April 14, 1930. Ford sedan automobile being driven by husband of Ruby Kahn, in endeavoring to pass another automobile became wedged between other automobile and street car; no personal injuries, Ford automobile rather badly damaged; no claim presented.

105. S. GARCIA vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and S Streets, April 20, 1930. Driver of automobile endeavored to beat street car to intersection; driving at a rapid rate of speed; endeavored to turn south in order to avoid collision, but collided with front corner of street car; driver sustained a slight cut on hand; automobile badly damaged; no claim presented.

106. E.J. O'NEILL vs. C.C.T. CO.
Sacramento Boulevard and 1st Avenue, April 21, 1930. No personal injuries; damage to automobile slight; no claim presented.

107. K. FRIJARA vs. C.C.T. CO.
Perkins Road Crossing, Sacramento, April 26, 1930. Train No. 1, southbound, proceeding toward intersection of Perkins Road; motorman observed one automobile brought to stop in order to permit train to pass; on approaching intersection, motorman continued to sound whistle, but Ford truck automobile being operated by K. Frijara apparently did not see train approaching; passed other automobile and drove directing in front of approaching train. As a result of this accident, the driver and two minor sons, age 12 and 13, were killed. Automobile demolished; no claim has as yet been presented.

108. BELLE BARKER vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th Street between J and K, May 23, 1930. No personal injuries; damage to automobile slight; no claim presented.

109. GLADYS MANUAN vs. C.C.T. CO.
21st and X Streets, June 6, 1930. Apparently no personal injuries; damage to automobile slight; and no claim presented.

110. W.J. MCCLARRION vs. C.C.T. CO.
2nd Avenue and 31st Streets, June 9, 1930. Damage to automobile slight; no personal injuries; no claim presented.

111. R. BERTOLANI vs. C.C.T. CO.
Santa Barbara Avenue and Stockton Boulevard, June 11, 1930. No personal injuries; right rear fender and door of automobile badly bent; no claim presented.

112. WILLIAM C. MASON vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and J Streets, June 12, 1930. No personal injuries no damage to automobile; no claim presented.

113. LORRAINE HAUSER vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th, between K and L Streets, June 20, 1930. Parked automobile suddenly pulled out in front of street car; motorman unable to stop; damage to automobile consisted of smashed door and broken fender; no personal injuries; no claimp presented.

114. FRANK O'BRIEN vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th, between K and L Streets, June 20, 1930. No personal injuries; no damage to automobile; no claim presented.

115. CHARLES GEITHLE vs. C.C.T. CO.
26th and X Streets, June 29, 1930. Traction Car No. 103 outbound approaching intersection of 26th and X Streets when motorman observed automobile approaching intersection from the north; driver of automobile neglected to slow down and crashed into side of street car; driver admitted that he was half asleep and that his brakes would not hold. No personal injuries; right front fender and lights of automobile smashed; axle bent; no claim presented.

116. MRS. ELEBECH vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and M Streets, July 15, 1930. Motorman of Traction Car No. 100 stopped at intersection of 8th and M Streets to discharge passengers. One women had remained standing near the vestibule door until the car had been brought to a stop, and she then walked forward and stepped down the front steps of the street car. On taking the first step, she caught her heel, causing her to fall. As a result, she sustained a rather badly skinned left arm and complained of pain in her hip and side. The motorman immediately established contact with Mr. Dineen, and arranged to have the passenger taken to Dr. G.E. Chappell. No claim presented.

117. K.N. WATKINS vs. C.C.T. CO.
Sacramento Boulevard, between 31st and 32nd Streets, July 17, 1930. Street car traveling south along Sacramento Boulevard; motorman observed automobile approaching on spur track; immediately sounded gong, and upon realizing that the automobile would not turn off track, threw off power and applied the brakes; when automobile was approximately 15 feet from the street car, it suddenly swerved to the right, striking the left front corner of the street car; apparently driver was not injured, but the Chevrolet Coupe was rather badly damaged; claim presented and rejected.

118. JOHN SAPINO vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and S Streets, July 19, 1930. A typical intersection accident; no personal injuries; no damage to automobile; no claim presented.

119. NO NAME. vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th, between K and L Streets, July 20, 1930. Driver of automobile endeavored to pass automobiles parked along side of street, but in so doing, swung in too close and sideswiped street car; driver apparently had no knowledge of this fact because he proceeded on without stopping; no claim presented.

120. ERNEST B. YOUNG vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and L Streets, August 2, 1930. Woman driving automobile endeavored to make turn in front of street car and collided with front step; admitted that she had not seen the street car, but was watching another automobile; no claim presented.

121. L.M. JANSEN vs. C.C.T. CO.
9th and X Streets, August 13, 1930. Traction Car No. 109 brought to a stop at 9th and X Streets; on starting and when front of street car was slightly past the center of the intersection, automobile came out from behind the rear end of a freight train which was traveling east, and drove into left front corner of street car. No personal injuries; front fender and running board of automobile damaged; no claim presented.

122. D. AGARA vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard and 8th Avenue, August 22, 1930. Motor No. 206 was traveling westerly along Stockton Boulevard when Chevrolet Coupe driven by D. Agara proceeding easterly pulled out of line of traffice and sideswiped motor; driver of automobile admitted that he did not see the Traction car until the instant of the crash; driver sustained scratched left elbow and damage to automobile consisted of broken left front wheel, broken headlights, broken fender and axle. No claim presented.

123. JESSE GALLITI vs. C.C.T. CO.
37th and 2nd Avenue, August 25, 1930. Automobile being driven at an excessive rate of speed collided with street car at intersection; no personal injuries; damage to automobile slight; no claim presented.

124. J.B. MILLER vs. C.C.T. CO.
2nd Avenue between 34th and 35th Streets, September 6, 1930. Automobile turned in front of street car in middle of block; no personal injuries; damage to automobile slight; no claim presented.

125. PHILLIPS MILLING CO. vs. C.C.T. CO.
Front and O Streets, Sacramento, September 11, 1930. Motor No. 4, while observing car on Phillips Milling Company's track, unable to stop due to slippery condition of the rails; automobile had been parked on spur track and motor slid into same; no personal injuries; one side of automobile badly damaged; fender bent; no claim presented.

126. CALIFORNIA GARAGE vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and K Streets, September 15, 1930. Interurban Train No. 3, proceeding through intersection when driver of automobile pulled out from curb and struck side of train; no injuries; damage to automobile slight; no claim presented.

127. CHARLES LORAN vs. C.C.T. CO.
30th and X Streets, September 16, 1930. Ford truck ran into side of Train No. 3, while crossing intersection; no personal injuries; damage to automobile slight; no claim presented.

128. JAMES BRYANT vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and K Streets, September 18, 1930. Traction Car No. 102 has just started to cross intersection of 8th and K Streets when driver of automobile passed another automobile on the right hand side and crashed into side of street car; no personal injuries; front of automobile damaged; no claim presented.

129. RAY GARCIA vs. C.C.T. CO.
11th and X Streets, September 27, 1930. Traction Car No. 111 had slowed down to approximately 10 miles an hour on approaching this intersection; motorman observed truck likewise approaching said intersection traveling at approximately 30 miles an hour; motorman unable to stop car due to slippery condition of the rails which caused street car to slide, hitting rear left of trailer; truck did not stop; no claim presented.

130. MARIE STEBBINS vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and T Streets, October 15, 1930. Traction Car No. 103, outbound had entered inter-section; driver of automobile suddenly speeded up endeavoring to beat street car to intersection; no personal injuries; left rear fender of automobile badly bent; no claim presented.

131. I.W. HALL vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and L Streets, October 16, 1930. Driver of Mack Oil truck with trailer attached drove in front of street car while same was proceeding southerly on 8th Street; street car brought to a stop just at the instant of contact; truck continued for a distance of approximately 8 feet, scraping front of car and tearing off fender slats; no personal injuries; damage to truck and trailer insignificant; no claim presented.

132. L.T. GEORGEOPOULOS vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th Street between M and N Streets, October 16, 1930. Traction Car No. 109 proceeding southerly on 8th Street; stopped at 8th and N for Sacramento Northern crossing; and just after starting car up, automobile pulled out from curbing and struck front step of street car. Suit has been filed.

133. C. SCHMIDT vs. C.C.T. CO.
19th and X Streets, October 17, 1930. Traction Company train standing at Western Pacific crossing for Western Pacific train to pass; auto driven northerly on 19th Street ran into side of flat car. Claim has been filed and rejected.

134. F.N. KAEETINI vs. C.C.T. CO.
32nd and Sacramento Boulevard, November 8, 1930. Street car No. 111 proceeding easterly on Sacramento Boulevard when Dodge sedan proceeding in westerly direction endeavored to turn into side street, causing automobile to sideswipe street car; driver of automobile admitted liability; no personal injuries; left front fender of automobile bent and left front wheel sprung; no claim presented.

135. H.R. WHITING vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th Street between M and N, November 11, 1930. Automobile being driven northerly along 8th Street and driver attempted to pass automobile parked by curbing, but was unable to do so and sideswiped street car, catching on the front step; no personal injuries; rear left fender and tire of automobile damaged; no claim presented.

136. HUDSON TAXI COMPANY vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and M Streets, November 15, 1930. Taxi crashed into rear end of the street car at intersection; no personal injuries; left front fender and bumper of taxi bent; no claim presented.

137. R.H. FORD vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard near 4th Avenue, November 28, 1930. Driver of automobile not looking where he was going; crashed into street car on left front corner; no personal injuries; damage to automobile consisted entirely of bent fender and hole in side of truck; no claim presented.

138. A.M. SOUZA vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th, between K and L Streets, December 5, 1930.
Dodge Sedan automobile traveling at a rapid rate of speed turned suddenly out of alley, striking side of street car; no personal injuries; damage to automobile slight; no claim presented.

139. J.C. DUDLEY vs. C.C.T. CO.
31st Street between X and Y, December 9, 1930.
Street car proceeding along 31st Street when automobile being driven by Mr. Dudley drove out of alley in front of street car; no personal injuries; damage to automobile consisted of bent fender and bumper; no claim presented.

140. A. DE CANDIE vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and N Streets, December 24, 1930. Truck owned by Myers Truck Line operated by A. De Candie collided with Traction Car at intersection; apparently both parties at fault; no personal injuries; slight damage to truck; no claim presented.

X 141. VERNON C. SPEARS, vs. C.C.T. CO.
Between 15th Avenue and San Francisco Boulevard, Sacto., December 24, 1930. Traction Car No. 109 proceeding along Stockton Boulevard; motorman observed truck approaching from opposite direction when approximately 150 or 200 feet away and traveling at a path approximately four feet from the car tracks; motorman sounded bell and shut off power in an effort to avoid the accident, but the truck suddenly swerved and crashed head on into street car; this truck was owned and operated by the Smith Tank Line, operating out of Huntington Park; driver of truck admitted after the accident that he had been on duty for about 19 or 20 hours and had fallen asleep. Suit has been filed against the Smith Tank Line to recover property damage.

142. PALSTRA vs. C.C.T. CO.
2nd Avenue and 37th Street, January 2, 1931.
Damage, if any, resulting from accident was very slight. No claim as yet presented.

143. STONE vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th, between L and K Streets, January 31, 1931.
Train No. 10 collided with Ford automobile which was double parked without lights. Extensive damage to rear end of automobile. No claim presented.

144. PALMER vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard and 13th Avenue, February 4, 1931.
The street car was proceeding northerly along Stockton Boulevard when automobile in question skidded 3 times and ultimately crashed into street car, head-on. No injuries reported, no claim presented.

145. NAKUMURA vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard and 2nd Avenue, February 10, 1931.
Automobile was being driven by H. NaKumura, wife and two children were riding with him. It collided with Traction Company street car as a result of skidding over slippery pavement. The automobile was rather extensively damaged. One child riding in automobile was removed to Sacramento Hospital following accident.

146. J.S. PEIXOTO vs. C.C.T. CO.
Stockton Boulevard and 14th Avenue, February 21, 1931.
When a Buick sedan automobile, being driven by J.S. Peixoto, cut across wrong side on intersection crashed into traction car the automobile was demolished. As a result of this accident, the report reveals that several persons were taken to the hospital. As yet no claim has been filed.

147. GOMES vs. C.C.T. CO.
28th and X Streets, February 23, 1931. The automobile which collided with the street car, in this instance, had stopped behind another parked automobile which had been stopped to permit street car to cross intersection. Suddenly driver of first car turned out and endeavored to cross in front of street car causing collision. No claim presented.

148. M.M. SUMMERS vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th, near intersection of 8th and J Streets, March 13, 1931. A pedestrian endeavoring to run across street to catch street car ran into train No. 9 but sustained no injuries. No claim presented.

149. NICKLOS vs. C.C.T. CO.
16th and X Streets, March 7, 1931. Traction car stopped at intersection to let off passengers. Mrs. Nicklos while alighting from car slipped and slid down steps. She complained of injuries to back and hip. Motorman claimed she had apparently been drinking. No claim has been presented.

150. D. MEO vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th and Q Streets, March 30, 1931. Essex coach collided with street car in intersection. Driver said he had never heard or observed street car approaching. Apparently no damage, no claim presented.

151. CLARENCE CUDDY vs. C. C. T. CO.
X, between 13 and 14 Streets, April 4, 1931. Ford automobile apparently endeavoring to pull in ahead of street car pulled in too close and collided with same. Left fender of automobile bent; no claim presented.

152. SWANSTON & SON vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th, between N & O Streets, April 7, 1931. Street car had been following truck and same stopped suddenly without warning. Motorman sounded bell, applied brakes but was unable to avoid accident. Apparently no damage to truck; no claim presented.

153. T.G. BARTON vs. C.C.T. CO.
Santa Barbara Avenue and Stockton Boulevard, April 17, 1931. Automobile suddenly turned off Stockton Boulevard to Santa Barbara Avenue in front of street car. Driver stated thereafter that he was watching something else and did not observe car. Slight cut sustained on nose; running board, both fenders, windshield and door glass broken. No claim presented.

154. J.C. JACOBSON vs. C.C.T. CO.
13th and X Streets, April 20, 1931. This was a typical -y intersection accident, both parties blaming the other. No personal injuries; damage to automobile slight; no claim has been presented.

154. H. BENDIX vs. C.C.T. CO.
10th and X Streets, April 22, 1931. Tow car traveling west on 10th Street skidded on wet pavement and collided with traction car. No personal injuries; property damage slight; no claim presented.

155. F. JACOBS vs. C.C.T. CO.
8th, near L Street, May 9, 1931. Automobile was about 10 feet in front of street car. Auto stopped after turning on track. Street car could not be stopped in time and hit rear of automobile, car steps broken, auto not damaged. No personal injuries, no claim presented.